

OFFICE OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE FACT SHEET

This is ONI

The Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) is the leading provider of global maritime intelligence for the U.S. Navy and other national intelligence community organizations. Established in 1882, ONI specializes in the analysis, production and dissemination of vital, timely and accurate scientific, technical, geopolitical and military intelligence information to key consumers worldwide.

Headquarters

ONI is headquartered at the National Maritime Intelligence Center (NMIC) located in Suitland, Maryland. The NMIC features a 24x7 Maritime Operations Center, science and engineering laboratories and a world-class information technology center.

Mission

ONI is chartered to provide products and services to meet Navy, Department of Defense and national maritime intelligence requirements. ONI produces meaningful maritime intelligence and moves that intelligence rapidly to key strategic, operational and tactical decision makers.

Employees

ONI employs over 3,000 military, civilian, mobilized reservists and contractor personnel worldwide, including analysts, scientists, engineers, specialists and technicians. It also has the support of more than 750 Navy Reservists providing an equivalent of 90+ man-years of production during weekend drill and active duty periods.

Customers & Tasking

ONI supports a broad range of customers worldwide, including fleet operators and analysts, war fighters, the acquisition community, other intelligence community organizations, the Department of Homeland Security, foreign and coalition partners, and law enforcement agencies.

Partnerships

ONI maintains close ties to many agencies within the U.S. Departments of Defense and Homeland Security, including

- Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA)
- U.S. Coast Guard Intelligence Coordination Center (USCG-ICC)
- Naval Information Operations Command (NAVIOCOM)
- Marine Corps Intelligence Activity (MCIA)
- National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA)

ONI also works closely with executive branch departments and agencies such as Treasury, Energy, State and the FBI.
